

Privacy Notice for Students (and Parents/Guardians)

We have tried to make this information as easy for you to understand as possible. However, if you find it difficult to understand you can ask your parents/guardians or another adult such as your teacher to help you. It is about how we use information about you and what we do with it. We call this information about you ‘personal data’ or ‘personal information.’

Who we are

You already know that your school is called Pimlico Academy and that it is part of Future Academies Trust, our family of Academies. The Future Academies Trust is the organisation which is in charge of your personal information. This means that Future Academies is called the Data Controller.

The categories of pupil information that we process include:

- personal identifiers and contacts (name, unique pupil number, contact details and address)
- characteristics (ethnicity, language, and free school meal eligibility)
- safeguarding information (court orders and professional involvement)
- special educational needs (including the needs and ranking)
- medical and administration (doctors information, child health, dental health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance (sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended)
- assessment and attainment (results)
- behavioural information (exclusions and any relevant alternative provision put in place)
- information about free school meal and pupil premium eligibility
- information for catering management purposes (e.g. whether you have school meals and how often)
- information about biometric recognition systems such as cashless catering
- trips and activities
- pupil photographs (more details about this are in our photograph policy)

Why we collect and use pupil information

As part of Future Academies, at Pimlico Academy we collect and hold personal information relating to our pupils and may also receive information about them from their previous schools, local authorities and/or the Department for Education (DfE). We use this personal data to:

- support your learning
- monitor and report on your progress
- provide appropriate care for you; and
- assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe (e.g. food allergies, emergency contact details)
- to comply with the statutory duties placed on the Academy by the DfE data collections

For pupils enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us the unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about your learning or qualifications.

The use of your information for these purposes is lawful for the following reasons:

- The Academy Trust is under a legal obligation to collect the information or the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to safeguard pupils.
- It is necessary for us to hold and use your information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling and so we can look after our pupils. This is a function which is in the public interest because everybody needs to have an education. This means we have a real and proper reasons to use your information.
- We will not usually need your consent to use your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would like to use your personal data in a way which means that we would need your consent then we will explain to you what we want to do and ask you for consent. This is most likely to be where we are involved in activities which are not really part of our job as a school but we are involved because we think it would benefit our pupils. If you give your consent, you may change your mind at any time. If we think that you will not understand what we are asking then we will ask your parent or guardian instead. Usually, we will involve your parents even if you can make your own decision.

How we collect pupil information

When we collect personal information on our forms, we will make it clear whether there is a legal requirement for you or your parents to provide it, whether there is a legal requirement on the Academy/Trust to collect it. If there is no legal requirement then we will explain why we need it and what the consequences are if it is not provided. We will also obtain information from your previous school, usually via secure file transfer from your previous school.

When we give your information to others

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, the law requires us to pass on certain information to Westminster City Council or the provider of Youth Support Services in your area, who have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds. We may also share certain personal data relating to children aged 16 and over with post-16 education and training providers in order to secure appropriate services for them. A parent/guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth be passed to Westminster City Council or the provider of Youth Support Services in your area, by informing the Designated Safeguarding Officer at Pimlico Academy. This right is transferred to the child once he/she reaches the age 16. For more information about services for young people, please go to our local authority website www.westminster.gov.uk.

We will not give information about our pupils to anyone without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. If you want to receive a copy of the information about you that we hold, please contact your Head of Year in the first instance.

We are required, by law (under regulation 5 of the Education (Information about Individual Pupils) England Regulations 2013, to pass some information about our pupils to the Department for Education (DfE). This is the part of the Government which is responsible for schools. This information may, in turn, then be made available for use by the Local Authority.

The DfE may share information about pupils that we give to them, with other people or organisations. This will only take place where the law, including the law about data protection allows it.

Sharing with the National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the pupil information we share with the department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

To find out more about the NPD, go to National pupil database: user guide and supporting information - GOV.UK.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions set by the DfE covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

- For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

Other times we may share your data

We will also normally give information about you to your parents or your main guardian. Where appropriate, we will listen to your views first. We will also take family circumstances into account, in particular where a Court has decided what information a parent is allowed to have.

We will also disclose your personal data to:

- Your new school if you move schools
- Disclosures connected with SEN support – e.g. non-LA professionals

- School Nurse
- School Counsellor (e.g. Place2Be)
- CAMHS (Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service)
- Our safeguarding partners (if we have concerns about your safety)

The information disclosed to these people / services will include sensitive personal information about you. Usually this means information about your health and any special educational needs or disabilities which you have. We do this because these people need the information so that they can support you. Our disclosure of your personal data is lawful for the following reasons:

- Future Academies is under a legal obligation to disclose the information or disclosing the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to look after our pupils and protect them from harm.
- It is necessary for us to disclose your information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling. This is a function which is in the public interest.
- There is a substantial public interest in disclosing your information because it is necessary to keep our pupils safe from harm.
- We may not need consent to disclose your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would need consent then we will ask before a disclosure is made.

It is in your interests for your personal information to be passed to these people or services. If we need consent to pass on your information we will ask you for consent once we think that you can understand what we are asking. This is because the law requires us to ask you if you can understand. Normally, we involve your parents too. By law we won't need their consent if you can give it but parents like to be involved because it is part of looking after you. Before you are old enough to understand we will ask your parents to consent for you.

We do not normally transfer your information to a different country which is outside the European Economic Area. This would only happen if one of your parents lives abroad or if you move to a new school abroad. If this happens we will be very careful to make sure that it is safe to transfer your information. We will look at whether that other country has good data protection laws for example. If we cannot be sure that it is safe then we will talk to you and your parents about it and make sure that you are happy for us to send your information. As this is not something we normally do and we don't know which country we might need to send your information to, we cannot tell you more about it now but if we want to transfer your data to a different country then we will tell you whether or not we think it is safe and why we have decided that.

How long we keep your information

We only keep your information for as long as we need to or for as long as the law requires us to. Most of the information we have about you will be in our pupil file. We usually keep these until your 25th birthday unless you move to another school in which case we send your file to your new school. We have a policy which explains how long we keep information. It is called a Records Retention Policy and you can ask for a copy at Reception.

Your rights

You have these rights:

- You can ask us for a copy of the information we have about you.
- You can ask us to correct any information we have about you if you think it is wrong.
- You can ask us to erase information about you (although we may have good reasons why we cannot do this).
- You can ask us to limit what we are doing with your information.
- You can object to what we are doing with your information.
- You can ask us to transfer your information to another organisation in a format that makes it easy for them to use.

There is more information in our Data Protection Policy, you can ask for a copy at Reception.
